37. ELECTIONS

37.1 All elections required by these Rules or by law shall be conducted in accordance with these Rules except to the extent that the Industrial Relations Act 1979 or any other law or regulation provides otherwise in which case the provision of such law or regulation shall be given effect to and any provision of these Rules that may be inconsistent with such law or regulation shall cease to apply to the extent of such inconsistency but otherwise the provisions of these Rules shall apply.

37.2 Whenever it becomes necessary for an election to be conducted under these Rules or in respect of any position or office in the Association or any division and no specific provision is made in these Rules applicable thereto, the provisions of these Rules relating to elections shall apply to the extent they are capable of so doing and it shall be the right and responsibility for the Returning Officer appointed to conduct such election to determine the procedure to be followed in any circumstances for which the Rules make no provision and the decision of the Returning Officer shall be final.
38. RETURNING OFFICER

38.1 Whenever it is necessary under these Rules to hold an election to fill a vacancy in any office, the Board of Management shall at least seven weeks before the date on which the vacancy is due to occur appoint a Returning Officer to conduct the election.

38.2 The Returning Officer shall not be the holder of any office or an employee or an appointee of the Association.

38.3 The Returning Officer appointed pursuant to Sub Rule 38.1 hereof shall hold office only in respect of the election for which he is appointed Returning Officer.

38.4 In the event of the Returning Officer becoming a candidate for election to any office he shall cease to be the Returning Officer and the Committee shall forthwith appoint a new Returning Officer in his place.

38.5 It shall be the duty of the Returning Officer:

(a) to accept or reject nominations for election to any office, and
(b) to conduct every election in respect of each office in accordance with these Rules and the Industrial Relations Act 1979 as amended and any regulations made thereunder.

38.6 If in the conduct of any election the Returning Officer finds a nomination to be defective he shall, before rejecting the nomination, notify the person concerned in the defect in writing and where it is practicable to do so, give him the opportunity of remedying the defect within seven days of such notification.

38.7 The Returning Officer shall determine the times and dates of the commencement and close of the period for lodging nominations of candidates for election for any office having regard to:

(a) the date of expiration of the term of office of the holder of the office.
(b) the time required to lodge nominations,
(c) the time required to complete the election, and
(d) the provisions of these Rules relating to the times and dates of the commencement and close of the period for lodging nominations in respect of the election.

38.8 The Returning Officer shall determine the place for lodging nominations of candidates for election.

38.9 The Returning Officer shall, not less than fourteen days or more than twenty one days before the commencement of the period for lodging nominations of candidates for an election for an office, cause to be published in a newspaper or newspapers circulating widely within the State a notice setting out:

(a) the name of the Association,
(b) the title of the office,
(c) the form in which nominations are to be made,
(d) the place for lodging nominations,
(e) the times and the dates of commencement and close of the period for lodging nominations (which shall be a period of not less than seven days) and inviting nominations of persons eligible under these Rules for election to the office to stand as candidates for election to that office.

38.10 The Returning Officer shall use, for the purpose of receiving ballot papers in respect of an election, a private postal box used exclusively for that purpose.

38.11 The Returning Officer, a person taking a step in or in connection with an election, may take such action and give such directions as he considers necessary in order to ensure the secrecy of the ballot and that no irregularities occur in or in connection with the election or to remedy any inconsistency or inadequacy that arises in the application of these Rules to the conduct of an election for an office.
39. NOMINATIONS

39.1 A person shall not be eligible to be elected to an office unless at the date of closing of nominations that person:

(a) is a financial member, and
(b) has been duly nominated in accordance with these Rules.

39.2 All nominations for election to an office shall be in writing signed by the person nominated signifying that person’s willingness to accept the office if elected and shall be countersigned by at least one person entitled to vote in the election.

39.3 A person nominated as a candidate may by notice signed by him and witnessed by an elector and addressed to and lodged with the Returning Officer before the time fixed for the expiry of the period for lodging nominations, withdraw his consent to the nomination and that person shall thereupon be deemed not to have been nominated.

39.4 If on the expiry of the period for lodging nominations for an office only one candidate is nominated for that office the Returning Officer shall declare (in accordance with these Rules) that the candidate so nominated has been elected.

39.5 If on the expiry of the period for lodging nominations for an office no nomination for that office has been received the Returning Officer shall as soon as practicable notify the Committee to the effect and upon receipt of such notification the Board of Management may appoint an eligible person to hold that office and the person so appointed shall for all purposes be deemed to have been elected in accordance with these Rules.

40. ELIGIBILITY TO VOTE

40.1 All persons who are financial members of the Association at the time of the close of nominations shall be eligible to vote in each election.

40.2 Subject to Rule 42.3 and notwithstanding the provisions of Sub Rule 40.1 of this Rule any member who ceases to be a financial member of the Association or who resigns prior to the date of the election shall cease to be a person eligible to vote in the election.

41. ELECTORAL ROLL

41.1 The full names and addresses of the members who are entitled under these Rules to vote in an election shall form the electoral roll for that election.

41.2 The Board of Management shall cause the Secretary to provide the Returning Officer with a roll of the persons who at the close of nominations are entitled to vote in the election and that roll shall:-

(a) List in alphabetical order the members of the Association who are eligible to vote in the election,
(b) Be provided on or before the expiration of fourteen (14) days of the close of nominations,
(c) Be certified as a true and correct roll of those eligible to vote in the election by the Secretary, and
(d) Show the full name of each member in alphabetical order of surname and where the surnames are identical in alphabetical order of christian or given names (the surname being in each case stated before the christian or given names) with a consecutive number against each name in a margin at the left hand side of the surname.

41.3 The Returning Officer shall delete from the roll the names of persons who after close of nominations and prior to the date of the election cease to be entitled to vote in the election.
41.4 The Returning Office shall at the place where he carries out his functions as Returning Officer make the electoral roll available for inspection by members or by any persons authorized by the Returning Officer during the ordinary hours of business until the day on which the result of the election is declared.

42. CONDUCT OF BALLOT

42.1 Where more than one candidate is nominated for election for an office the Returning Officer shall determine the date of commencement and issuing of ballot papers and the time and date of the close of the ballot having regard to:

(a) the date or expiration of the term of office of the retiring committeemen,
(b) the time required to send and return ballot papers by post,
(c) the time required to complete the election, and
(d) the provisions of these Rules relating to the times and dates of the commencement and close of the ballot in respect of the election.

42.2 As soon as practicable after the date determined under the preceding sub rule of the commencement of issuing of ballot papers in respect of an election the Returning Office shall issue by posting by pre-paid post to each person whose name is on the roll and who is eligible to vote at the address shown on the roll, a ballot paper and other ballot material appropriate to the election in respect of which the person is entitled to vote in a sealed envelope and provide for the return of the ballot paper without expense to the voter.

42.3 Where in respect of an election the Returning Officer has under the preceding sub rule issued a ballot paper to a person whose name is after the issue of the ballot paper deleted from the roll the person shall be deemed to be entitled to vote in the election.

42.4 The envelope referred to in Sub Rule 42.2 shall bear an instruction that if it is not delivered to the addressee it shall be returned to the private postal box referred to in Rule 38.10.

42.5 The envelope referred to in Sub Rule 42.2 shall contain:-

(a) a ballot paper initialed by the Returning Officer or bearing a facsimile of those initials,
(b) an envelope marked “Ballot Paper”,
(c) an envelope addressed to the Returning Officer at the private postal box referred to in Rule 38.10 being an envelope that may be posted without expense to the voter (the back of which envelope may be used as a counterfoil) and, where the back of that envelope is not so used, a separate counterfoil.

42.6 The counterfoil shall be numbered with a number coinciding with the voter’s consecutive number on the electoral roll and shall make provision for the endorsement thereon of:-

(a) the office or offices to which the election relates,
(b) the full name of the voter
(c) the address of the voter
(d) the signature of the voter

42.7 Ballot papers shall be in a form in accordance with these Rules and the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1979 and the regulations made thereunder but otherwise as determined by the Returning Officer.

42.8 The Returning Officer shall obtain on each occasion from the printer of the ballot papers a certificate stating the number of ballot papers printed in respect of the election being held.

42.9 The Returning Officer shall conduct a draw for positions on the ballot paper.

42.10 The Returning Officer shall include on the ballot paper information and instructions to the voter that is substantially in accordance with the following:-

(a) the title of each office to which the election relates,
(b) the time and date of the close of the ballot
(c) how to mark the ballot paper in order to record a formal vote so that such instructions shall comply with these Rules as far as possible.
(d) not to put on the ballot paper any mark or writing by which the voter can be identified,
(e) the place the ballot paper when completed in the envelope marked “Ballot Paper” and then to seal the envelope,
(f) to complete the details on the counterfoil
(g) to place the ballot paper envelope (and the counterfoil if a separate one is used) in the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and then to seal the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and post it to the Returning Officer before the time of the close of the ballot.

42.11 Where an application made before the time of the close of the ballot in an election the Returning Officer is satisfied of the evidence presented to him that a ballot paper or return envelope issued to a person whose name is on the electoral roll has not been received or has been lost, destroyed or spoilt, he may issue to that person a duplicate ballot paper or return envelope as the case may be.

42.12 An application under the preceding sub rule by a person for a duplicate ballot paper or return envelope shall be in writing setting out the grounds on which the application is made accompanied by a statutory declaration declaring that the person has not voted in the election and shall have annexed to it any evidence that is available of the non-receipt, loss, destruction or damage.

42.13 At the time of the close of the ballot but not before an in the presence of the scrutineers, or where a scrutineer has been informed in accordance with these Rules but is not present in his absence, the Returning Officer shall:

(a) Collect all envelopes from the private postal box at the post office
(b) Take all the envelopes so collected to the place of count and proceed to make the count
(c) Keep all the envelopes in safe custody until the count is complete.

42.14 The Returning Officer in consultation with Board of Management shall make provision for the preservation in the custody of the Association:

(a) all nomination papers
(b) all ballot papers admitted as formal
(c) all ballot papers rejected as informal
(d) all counterfoils relating to the ballot papers whether formal or informal,
(e) all envelopes received after the close of the ballot,
(f) the marked electoral roll against which counterfoils were checked
(g) unused ballot papers, counterfoils and other documents prepared in connection with the election which shall be respectively placed in separate containers each endorsed with the name of the Association and the office to which the election relates and shall be sealed, signed and dated by the Returning Officer and retained for a period of not less than four weeks after the date of the election.

43. SYSTEM OF VOTING

43.1 Voting shall be by the preferential system and accordingly each voter shall mark his ballot paper by placing the figure 1 opposite the name of the candidate for whom he votes as his first preference and the figures 2, 3, 4 (and so on as the case requires) opposite the respective names of all of the remaining candidates so as to indicate by such numerical sequence the order of his preference for each candidate provided that at any election where there are only two candidates a ballot paper shall be deemed to be sufficiently marked if marked so as to indicate the voter’s first preference.
44. COUNT OF BALLOT

Subject to the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1979:

44.1 The Returning Officer before proceeding to count the number of votes to ascertain which candidate is successful in the election shall:

(a) check each counterfoil against the member's names on the electoral roll and if the voting papers are in order mark the roll,
(b) remove the ballot paper envelope from the envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and place the ballot paper envelope unopened in a separate container
(c) when all counterfoils are checked and cleared, open the ballot paper envelopes and proceed with the count.

44.2 Where any voting papers are rejected the Returning Officer shall replace the counterfoil and the envelope marked “Ballot Paper” unopened in the envelope in which they were received, endorse the latter envelope “rejected” with the reasons for rejection and set aside for safekeeping.

44.3 The Returning Officer shall eject as informal a ballot paper that:

(a) does not bear the initials of the Returning Officer or a facsimile of those initials are required by these Rules,
(b) has upon it a mark or writing by which the voter can be identified, or
(c) is not marked substantially in accordance with the instructions referred to in Rule 42.10 (c).

44.4 Where during the scrutiny the Returning Officer is informed by a scrutineer appointed under these Rules that the scrutineer objects to a ballot paper being admitted as formal the Returning Officer shall decide the matter by admitting or rejecting the ballot paper and shall endorse his decision on the ballot paper.

44.5 Subject to the following sub rule the procedure at the count after the Returning Officer has scrutinized the ballot papers and rejected any informal votes shall be as follows:-

(a) If there are only two candidates the Returning Officer will count the number of votes recorded for each candidate and at the declaration of the result of the ballot will declare the candidate who has received the greatest number of votes duly elected.
(b) If there are more than two candidates the Returning Officer will arrange the ballot papers in parcels so that each parcel consists of those ballot papers on which the first preference vote is indicated for the same candidate and will count all the first preference votes given to each candidate respectively. If the number of first preference votes received by the candidate receiving the greatest number of first preference votes constitutes an absolute majority the Returning officer will at the declaration of the result of the ballot declare the candidate duly elected.
(c) If no candidate has an absolute majority of votes after the counting of the first preference votes the Returning officer will declare the candidate who has received the least number of first preference votes to be defeated and the ballot papers counted to him will be distributed amongst the non-defeated candidates in order of the voter’s next preference as shown thereon. If after such a distribution the number of notes recorded in favour of one of the remaining candidates is an absolute majority he will be declared duly elected otherwise the process of declaring the candidate who has the least number of votes defeated and of distributing his ballot papers amongst the non-defeated candidates according to the voter’s next preference as shown thereon will be repeated and votes recounted after each distribution until one candidate has obtained an absolute majority of votes, which candidate the Returning Officer will at the declaration of the result of the ballot declare duly elected.
(d) If at the conclusion of any stage during the count the number of votes recorded for any two or more candidates is the same the Returning Officer will draw lots to decide which of such candidates shall be declared duly elected and which candidate defeated, as the case may be.

44.6 In the case of an election to fill two or more vacancies the procedure shall be to progressively eliminate the candidates with the lowest number of votes and to distribute the next available preferences shown on the ballot papers until only such number of candidates remain as are required to fill the number of vacancies to be filled. Such remaining candidates shall be declared duly elected by the Returning Officer at the declaration of the result of the ballot.

45. DECLARATION OF RESULT OF ELECTION

45.1 The Returning Officer shall submit a written report of the result of each ballot to the next meeting of the Board of Management following the completion of the count of the ballot. The Returning Officer shall attend such meeting of the Board of Management and declare the result of each election.

45.2 Where it is not practicable for the Returning Officer to declare the result of an election in accordance with Rule 42.1 and in particular where there is no meeting of the Board of Management within fourteen (14) days following the election the Returning Officer shall declare the result of the election by giving notice of the result in writing to the Association at its registered office on or before the expiration of the period of fourteen (14) days aforementioned.

45.3 The Returning Officer shall in the manner and at the time of declaring the result of an election under Rules 42.1 or 42.2 (as the case may be) declare in respect of the election:

(a) the number of ballot papers other than duplicate ballot papers issued,
(b) the number of duplicate ballot papers issue,
(c) the number of ballot papers admitted as formal,
(d) the number of ballot papers admitted as informal,
(e) the number of unused ballot papers,
(f) the number of ballot papers certified by the printer pursuant to Rule 42.8 and
(g) the number of votes admitted as recorded in favour of each candidate.

46. SCRUTINEERS

46.1 Each candidate nominated for election may by written notice given to the Returning Officer not less than seven (7) days prior to the close of the ballot appoint a person who is a financial member of the Association (other than the candidate himself) to be a scrutineer in respect of that election and may by notice in like manner appoint another such person to carry out the function of scrutineer where the first mentioned person declines to carry out these functions.

46.2 A scrutineer appointed under Sub Rule 46.1 shall be given sufficient notice in writing by the Returning Officer prior to the date and time when the Returning Officer opens the private postal box at the Post Office to enable him to be present while the Returning Officer performs his functions.

46.3 Subject to these Rules a scrutineer appointed under Sub Rule 46.4 may:

(a) be present while the Returning Officer carries out his functions under Rules 42.8 and 44.1,
(b) direct the attention of the Returning Officer to any irregularity concerning the issue of ballot papers, the admission of any envelope to scrutiny, the admission of a ballot paper as formal, the rejection of a ballot paper as informal or the counting of the vote, and
(c) carry out any other functions of a scrutineer under these Rules.

46.4 Where a scrutineer appointed under Sub Rule 46.1:

(a) interrupts the scrutiny otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of these Rules, or
(b) fails to carry out a lawful request by the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer may direct the scrutineer to leave the place where the scrutiny is being conducted.

46.5 A scrutineer appointed under Sub Rule 46.1 shall comply with a direction of the Returning Officer given under Sub Rule 46.4.
